

Eunice E. Valentine

Executive director,
The Volunteer Center of Sonoma County
Phone: 707-573-3399 ext. 101
Email: evalentine@volunteernow.org

Biographical Highlights

Eunice Valentine, The Executive Director of the Volunteer Center of Sonoma County, has spent the majority of her career in management positions in the nonprofit sector with human services, philanthropic, civic and cultural organizations. The Volunteer Center of Sonoma County is one of the largest of its kind in the country, offering 10 services and many special events, including the Human Race.

Prior to joining the Volunteer Center in April 2006, Eunice served for 6 years as the Executive Director of the Lindsay Wildlife Museum in Walnut Creek, Ca.

She has held executive leadership positions at the Volunteer Center of Marin, the YWCA of San Francisco & Marin, and RIDES for Bay Area Commuters and the United Way in San Francisco and Cincinnati Ohio.

Eunice comes from a tradition of volunteering. After college graduation, she worked for 2 years in a Children's Hospital for refugees children in Danang Vietnam.

Her experience in the business world includes being the manager of the Pacific Bell Phone Center Store in Santa Rosa, in the early 1980's.

Educational background:

B.S. in Psychology and Sociology,
MSW, Masters in Social Work
Masters of Fine Art in writing, literature and publishing.